

LIBERATING DISABILITY

POTENTIALITIES OF JUSTICE:
TOWARD COLLECTIVE REPARATIVE FUTURES
SAWYER SEMINAR AT RUTGERS-NEWARK

Artwork by Lydia X.Z. Brown

The first event of the 2024-25 Sawyer Seminar “Potentialities of Justice: Toward Collective Reparative Futures” is a two-day series of workshops, speakers, and performances to explore the role of disability in movements for justice and liberation.

SCHEDULE

October 23, 2024 (In-person) | 11:30AM-5PM

Express Newark, Room 213, Rutgers University-Newark

- 11:30AM Welcome and Luncheon
- 12:00PM Keynote with Keah Brown, Author of The Pretty One
- 1:00PM Black Impact Summit Report with Bill Davis
- 1:15PM Policy Report on Race and Disability with Joseph C. Cornwall Center for Metropolitan Studies
- 1:45PM Sick of It! Zine Workshop on Incarceration and Disability Justice
- 2:45PM Liberating Disability Panel with New Jersey Scholarship and Transformative Education in Prisons (NJ-STEP), Department of Urban Education, and The Anti-Eugenics Project
- 4:00PM Film Screening: Crip Camp

October 24, 2024 (Zoom) | 3-4:00PM (ET)

Disability and Reparations: From Haunting to Hope with Dr. Linda Steele

REGISTER

The Sawyer Seminar is sponsored by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation. For more information and schedule of events visit sawyerseminar.newark.rutgers.edu